Derek Griffiths Memorial Scholarship Application Packet

This Application Packet Contains:

- Academic Evaluation
- Activities and Leadership Roster

The Derek Griffiths Memorial Scholarship was established and is funded by Harry and Denise Griffiths in loving memory of their son Derek. Their commitment speaks to the impact LHS had on their son. Derek loved Lutheran High School. He loved his classmates, athletics, his coaches, his teachers and his classes. He loved the feeling of “family.” Harry and Denise Griffiths want to share these opportunities with other young people. To be considered for this scholarship the student must meet the following initial criteria:

1. Be involved in extracurricular activities
2. Demonstrate leadership potential
3. Submit grades in English, Science, Social Studies and Math for the first semester of eighth grade
4. Complete the LHS enrollment process and be accepted before the scholarship will be awarded.

The Application Packet is due no later than April 28, 2018. Applicants may download and complete this application and either submit an electronic file or mail a printed application to:
