Spanish I: Booth

Spiral or other single-subject notebook
Loose leaf paper/legal pad, etc.
Folder for handouts (may be part of a 3-ring binder or other organizer)
Black/blue pens, pencils, erasers, etc.
At least one colored pen or pencil that is not blue/black—purple and/or green are preferred; NO RED, NO NEON
At least one dry-erase marker in a traditional, easy to see color; NO NEON.
Extra markers for the classroom are much appreciated.
Post-it/sticky notes. Extras for the classroom are much appreciated.
Strongly recommended: Flash cards or index cards for vocabulary study; Plain construction or computer paper may also be used, although many students prefer the tangible cards since they are less transparent and easier to flip.
Strongly recommended: A student-level
Spanish to English/English to Spanish dictionary (physical book, not app)
Strongly recommended: a stylus for iPad
Requested for classroom: a box of Kleenex or other facial tissue and chart-paper markers would be much appreciated.
